

PATRICK MENIBOON

B E T H E C O U R A G E

KEYNOTE SPEAKER, STRATEGIST, CONSULTANT

“THE COURAGE GUY”

Born in Liberia to a 15 years old mother child, who unintentionally inspired his courage, Patrick's own journey has required ferocious pursuit of courage. To overcome the self-consciousness of the stutter he developed as a child, Patrick challenged himself to do the impossible: become a public speaker.

WHY WORK WITH US?

Patrick Meniboon leads "late bloomers" past their insecurities and equips them to master courage and exponentially catapult their influence, impact and freedom

Today, he speaks to people at organizations across the United States and equips them to live with purpose and courage using his ARM™ Self-Mastery Program. A self-described introvert plagued with insecurity, Patrick immigrated to the United States from Liberia in 1999. As a business analyst and consultant, he has worked with international companies including 3M, US Bank, General Electric (GE), Emerson Process Management, and Wells Fargo.

In 2010, he stared down his fear of public speaking and joined Toastmasters. With study and practice, and a heart for helping others overcome their fears, Patrick was named a district finalist in 2015 in the Toastmaster World Championship of Public Speaking. His passion is inspiring people to become courageous leaders of their own lives. By equipping people with powerful tools, he empowers them to overcome their insecurities and self-imposed limitations. The end goal: courageous people, strong teams, powerful impact.

Unblock Your Courage with Mind Map: Find and Disable Your Insecurity Button

Thank you so much for presenting to us today... I hope Carrie shared some of the online comments with you. I've since gotten 2 more emails just saying the talk was excellent. Your teacher was right - you do belong on stage. You are likeable, and allow people to connect with your authentic self. You have a story not only can people hear, but they can witness your courage in action. That's very powerful. Everyone has insecurities - everyone. And your talk allows them to look at themselves, quietly, and through a new lens
